We have visited...

Museum of the National Revival

... learned about its establishment...

The brand new exposition shows the most important moments of Varna's history during the Revival period.

... and its history...

193

Was built in the end of XIX. century
It was used for a different needs, including for independent girls' high school after the liberation. Now it's a placed at the Museum's disposal.

Anything else ...

- on the first floor is affected the significance of Varna as one strategic point over the West Black Sea
- In the exposition which is situated on the second floor are showed a moments of the city's economic development
- In one of the halls is recovered the atmosphere of the classroom of the mutually school with all of the attributes which are relevant with the education in this period.
- In the exposition are showed new materials, which are collected during many years - books, church plate, a weapon and private things of the combatants for the freedom.

We have visited...

Ethnographic Museum

... learned about its establishment...

The museum reflects the rich material and the cultural heritage of the local population during the second half of the XIX century and beginning of the XX century.

... and about its history...

Was established in 1902 by initiative of the Pioneers of Bulgarian Archeology - the Skorpel brothers

Anything else ...

Today the museum funds contain more than 20.000 objects.

The museum keeps within itself one great and varied collection of items that show what life was like for Bulgarians in the past.

We can see here the daily life of Bulgarian in the past: how and with what they worked, the clothes they wore in day to day life and when celebrating the holidays.
